PARKING & TRANSIT ACCOUNT ELIGIBLE EXPENSES

Once you have contributed money into your Parking and/or Transit Account, you can use it to pay for parking and mass transit eligible expenses related to commuting to work tax free.

Below is a partial list of eligible expenses that are reimbursable through a Parking and/or Transit Account. For more information, see your Employee Reimbursement Accounts (ERA) Participant Guide. For the complete list of eligible and ineligible expenses, visit www.IRS.gov and see IRS Publications 5137.

Transit Expenses

Bus passes

- Subway vouchers, passes or tokens
- Train vouchers, passes or tokens
- Vanpooling fees

Note: Eligible transit expenses must be work related.

Parking Expenses

- Metered parking
- Monthly and/or daily parking fees for parking lots and/or ramps
- Park n' ride lots
- Parking at mass transit facility

Note: Eligible parking expenses must take place at or near your place of employment, or at a location from where you commute to work.

What is an eligible expense?

An eligible expense is a workrelated transportation fee for parking or mass transit the IRS states can be paid for without taxes.

How should I keep track of my eligible expenses?

You should keep all of your receipts and pertinent documentation in order to prove your Parking and/or Transit Account was used for eligible parking and/or mass transit expenses.

Parking and Transit Accounts are separate benefits. Please choose the commuter benefit(s) that best meets your needs.

Ineligible Parking & Transit Expenses

Note: If you pay for anything other than eligible expenses with your parking and/or transit account(s), the amount will be taxable, and you will be required to repay the amount or pay an additional 20 percent tax penalty. Below is a partial list of ineligible expenses. For more information, see your ERA Participant Guide. For the complete list of eligible and ineligible expenses, visit www.IRS.gov and see IRS Publications 5137.

Note: If you park at your place of employment, your deductions may already be taken pre-tax. These deductions are not eligible.

- Airline flights
- Bicycle-related expenses
- Expenses incurred in traveling from an office to business or client meetings
- Non-work related transportation or parking expenses
- Parking for business meetings
- Residential parking fees
- Tolls, gas, or other driving-related costs
